

I Need Your Help!

In October of 2015 our 22 year old cat, Ted Bird passed away.

The grief and depression was horrible and enlightening. We experienced the miracle of life and the agony of mourning for a wonderful companion.

Ted Bird passed away at home on the deck that she loved to lay on every summer, basking in the sun.

The experience taught me a lot and I am writing a book about what I learned and felt. It is my hope that this book will help others through the pain of losing a companion and family member.

This is a painful process, recalling the passing of all of the wonderful pets that I have had the honor of knowing. It is also a wonderful therapy, recalling all the great experiences I had with them.

I want to include the experiences of other families that have lost one of their own, no matter what kind or breed of companion. Contact me through the web site below or by phone if you want to tell the world about your wonderful companion and what they meant to you and your family.

You can read the first two chapters of the book and contact me at:
